

U. S. Marine Corps Forces Korea

Anyong haseyo! Congratulations on your assignment to the “Land of the Morning Calm.”

We are excited to welcome you to what we hope will be a unique and rewarding experience, both, personally and professionally. Located on the largest U.S. Overseas base, the United States Marine Corps Forces Korea Headquarters is in a prime location to experience Korean culture and just an hour away from the capital, Seoul.

I encourage you to visit the MCCA M&FP facility on your installation to receive information and assistance with your PCS move. MCCA M&FP provides relocation assistance to all service members and their families who are relocating from one duty station to another. I would like to take this opportunity to provide you with instruments of success, the Garrison webpage (www.army.mil/Humphreys) and the military OneSource website (www.militaryonesource.mil). You will find many resources at your fingertips to prepare for your international move to include:

- Pre-departure planning
- Determining needs and priorities
- Telephone/Internet service
- Shipping your vehicle
- Household goods
- Housing,
- NEO
- Bringing pets with you
- The local schools on post,
- Medical services, on/off post
- Activities, on/off post
- Relocation Workshops (Smooth Move Workshop, Newcomers' Orientation Welcome Aboard, Sponsorship Training)

Your official sponsor will be contacting you shortly and he can help answer any specific questions you may have.

Welcome aboard and we look forward to your arrival in Korea!

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "T. G. Burton".

T. G. BURTON

Colonel

Deputy Commander

U. S. Marine Corps Forces, Korea